MENC

مؤتمر قيادة البحريين في الشرق الأوسط
THE MIDDLE EAST NAVAL COMMANDERS CONFERENCE

MENC

The Middle East Naval Commanders Conference (MENC), one of the key features of each edition of DIMDEX, brings together renowned academics and industry experts from around the world to discuss the latest regional and international trends in maritime defence and security on strategic and operational level.

MENC will take place on the second day of DIMDEX, 5 March 2024. The event is open to the public and free of charge, however pre-registration is required.

At DIMDEX 2024, MENC will explore Economic Growth Prospects Amidst Security Challenges and Their Global Impact. Panel discussions will revolve around unconventional challenges in the region's maritime domain and means of increasing overall resilience.

REASONS TO ATTEND:

- The eighth edition of MENC will bring together thought-leaders from around the world to discuss the latest developments in the maritime defence and security field in a series of high-level panel discussions, which can drive collaboration on strategic resilience towards state and non-state actors, who employ a range of asymmetric means to disrupt stability.
- Meet and listen to insightful discussions by distinguished industry experts, delegates, and senior military officials at the forefront of the global defence sector.
- Compare ideas and policy trends on the future of maritime defence and security.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Defence and Security Ministers
- Chiefs of Staff, Chiefs of Navies, Coastguard Commanders
- Government Officials and Policy Makers
- Senior Navy and Maritime Defence Officials
- Military Procurement Officials
- International Media
- Military Strategists
- Industry Analysts
- International Defence and Security Contractors
